

Do you leak, and does it bother you?

You're not alone — and you have options for relief.

One in 2 women suffer from urinary incontinence.*

Do you:

- Leak while laughing, sneezing, lifting or jumping?
- Have trouble holding it as you hurry to the bathroom?
- Wear pads or liners to protect against unplanned leaks?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, you may have stress urinary incontinence. But you don't have to live with it. There are treatment options available.

Free Women's Health Webinar: Bladder Leakage

Tune in anonymously to learn more about bladder leakage in women, also known as urinary incontinence. We'll explore the condition, symptoms and various treatment options.

Presented by:

Dr. Renee Caputo
Central Ohio Urology Group

Two ways to join:

1. In person at:
Gahanna
700 Tech Center Dr
Gahanna, OH 43230
2. Virtually: www.bit.ly/caputo-webinar

Date: Thursday, May 11, 2023

Time: 6:30 PM

This event will be held at the Gahanna office location. If you cannot attend in person, please join us virtually. Light refreshments will be served for those joining in person.

* According to the 7th Annual National Survey of Urology Practice (NSUP) published in May 2012, approximately 16% of women (approximately 16 million) in the United States (USA) suffer from urinary incontinence (UI).
Source: www.urologyjournal.org

*Disclaimer: Nothing is intended to constitute an offer of any medical product or service. This material is meant only to provide information and does not constitute an offer. It is not a substitute for medical advice. Please consult your physician for more information.